

JACKSON STATE UNIVERSITY
DIVISION OF INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

Presents...

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK

International Education - the Key to Global Awareness

November 16-18, 2009

Cultural Presentations

International Film Festival

Exhibits and Artifacts

Monday, November 16, 2009

Documentary Film For More Sun
Producer: Joint Entertainment International Inc.

*Division of International Studies
Conference Room
12:00 p.m. - 1:45 p.m.*

Tuesday, November 17, 2009

Responsible Conduct in International Programs
Speaker: Dr. Ally Mack, Dean, Division of International Studies and Professor of Political Science

*Division of International Studies
Conference Room
12:00 p.m. - 1:00 p.m.*

Documentary Film Squid Daddy's Delivery Room
Producer: Public Television and Cultural Affairs Television

*Jacob L. Reddix Campus Union
General Purpose Room
1:00 p.m. - 2 p.m.*

Islamic Moorish Spain
Producer: International Museum of Muslim Cultures

2:00 p.m. - 2:10 p.m.

The Legacy of Timblutu
Producer: International Museum of Muslim Cultures

2:15 p.m. - 2:25 p.m.

Broken Silence
Producer: Kai Productions / Reel Walk Cinema, LLC

2:30 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Wednesday, November 18, 2009

Jacob L. Reddix Campus Union

International Education - the Key to Global Awareness 12:00 p.m. - 1:00 p.m.
Presentation by Okolo Rashid, Executive Director, International Museum of Muslim Cultures

Presentations by the English as a Second Language Students and Other JSU International Students at Local Elementary, Middle and High Schools in Jackson, MS (Monday, Tuesday and Thursday)

Cultural Presentations by the English as a Second Language Students and Other JSU International Students about the Americas, Europe, Asia, and Africa

Exhibits

Displays on India, South Korea, Guinea, Kenya, Vietnam, Cameroon, Kyrgyzstan, China, Colombia, Algeria, Burma, and Turkey

International Flags Display

Supporting Organizations

- Kai Productions
- International Museum of Muslim Cultures
- Institut of Interfaith Dialogue and Raindrop Foundation
- Turkish Cultural Center
- International Arts Alliance

Door Prizes and Refreshments