

Hussain M. Al-Fadhli, Ph.D., MPH

Associate Professor

Degrees:

Ph.D.	Sociology	1992	Mississippi State University
M. S.	Sociology	1987	Mississippi State University
M.P.H.	Public Health	2001	Jackson State University
B.A.	Social Work	1978	Kuwait University

Recent Publications:

Al-Fadhli, Hussain & Madhu Singh. 2009. "Unequal Moving to Being Equal: Impact of the NCLB Act in Mississippi Delta," The Journal of Negro Education (Forthcoming).

Al-Fadhli, Hussain & Felicia Whittington (2008). "Reclaiming Youth At- Risk: Five Years of Violence Prevention Experience in Mississippi." An evaluative study appeared in Diverse Approaches to Family & Community Violence Prevention: A National Perspective. Edited by Laxley Rodney, Martha Heggins & Casimir Kowalski. The McGraw Hill, Inc.: New York.

Al-Fadhli, Hussain & Madhu Singh. 2006. "Teachers' Expectancy and Efficacy as Correlates of School Achievement in Delta, Mississippi," Journal of Personnel Evaluation in Education. Volume 19, Numbers 1-2.

Areas of Interest:

Research methods, Evaluative Research, Quantitative Data Analysis, Cultural Anthropology, Community Analysis