

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT
INSTRUCTOR FOR REMOTE SENSING LABORATORY
DEPARTMENT OF BIOLOGY
SCHOOL OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY
COLLEGE OF SCIENCE, ENGINEERING, and TECHNOLOGY
JACKSON STATE UNIVERISTY

Jackson State University invites applications and accepts nominations for a part-time instructor for Remote Sensing Laboratory in the Department of Biology.

RESPONSIBILITIES: Teaching Remote sensing laboratory classes at under/graduate levels during regular semesters; assisting students' projects & laboratory exercises in the RS laboratory; and participating in RS research development

MINIMUM QUALIFICATION: B.S. & M.S. in scientific disciplines closely related to geospatial sciences; must have > 5 years of teaching and/or research experiences in Remote Sensing and GIS; must have skills in use of software such as ERDAS Imagine, ENVI, and ArcGIS.

SALARY: $20,000 per 12 months (40% efforts).

BEGINNING DATE: October 1st, 2007

Complete application must include a letter of application; curriculum vitae to include a philosophy of education and names, addresses, titles, and telephone numbers of three professionals capable of assessing the candidate's qualifications. Applications should be sent to:

Dr. Hyun Jung Cho, Assistant Professor
Department of Biology
1400 Lynch St.
Jackson State University
Jackson, Mississippi 39217
Ph: 601-979-3912
Fax: 601-979-5853
Email: hyun.j.cho@jsums.edu