

Research Productivity

- The amount of externally funded grants for the Department of Civil & Environmental Engineering has been among the highest nationwide.
- The amount of externally funded grants for the Department of Civil & Environmental Engineering during the 2016-2017 Academic Year was 4.9M.
- Approximately 80% of all equipment has been obtained through externally funded grants.
- Faculty and students are very active in publishing in reputable and refereed engineering journals.
- One faculty is a fellow of the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE).
- One faculty member obtained the prestigious National Science Foundation CAREER grant.

Graphical Representation of Grants Generated

Graphical Representations of Comparison between the Equipment
Obtained through University Budget and the Externally Funded Grants

