

JSU Civil Engineering Graduate Student Selected: TRB Minority Student Fellow

Annual Meeting of TRB from January 12-15, 2014 in Washington, DC, where he presented a paper entitled “Porcelain-enamel Coated Steel Fiber Reinforcement in Cementitious & Geopolymeric Composite Materials” during the poster presentation session and got an excellent evaluation of his research. He was presented the Fellowship at the Chairman Luncheon on January 15, 2014. Stacy has also been recognized by the senior administrators of the Federal Highway Administration and the Department of Transportation. His academic advisors are Dr. Lin Li and Dr. Farshad Amini in the Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering, Jackson State University.

Civil engineering graduate student Stacy Holton was selected to the Transportation Research Board of the National Academies as a Minority Student Fellow among 10 other fellows nationwide. Stacy attended the 93rd