Dr. Evornia Kincaid
Associate Professor

Dr. Evornia Kincaid is an Associate Professor in the Department of Elementary and Early Childhood Education at Jackson State University. Prior to coming to Jackson State, she worked as a K-12 school administrator for the Milwaukee Public Schools in Milwaukee. Dr. Kincaid has also worked as a classroom teacher and a school guidance counselor. Her passion is developing quality teachers for our children. Dr. Kincaid’s research, scholarship and creativity activities have played a prominent role throughout her tenure at Jackson State University. In October 2012, she was selected to be part of the first cohort for the Academy for Research and Scholarly Engagement. She was also a recipient of the 2012 “ONE JSU EXCELLENCE AWARD.” Dr. Kincaid’s goal is to continue helping pre-service candidates become quality educators.

Dr. Kincaid agrees with Gilbert Highet, The Art of Teaching, “A teacher must believe in the value and interest of his subject as a doctor believes in health.”
