

ANNOUNCEMENT OF POSITION
Jackson State University
Department of Speech Communication & Theatre

Position: The Department of Speech Communication seeks application for the following position in the 2008-09 Academic Year

Qualifications & Responsibilities: Tenure Track Assistant Professor of Speech and Theatre. The successful candidate will minimally hold a M.A. in Speech Communication and/or Theatre; Ph.D. preferred (near completion ABD considered). Candidate should have college teaching experience and a successful record of activities among which could be: (1) Theatre Director of Set & Lighting Designer with Management and Promotions experience for 3-4 productions, and/or (2) Forensics Director to develop team and schedule of individual events and competitive debate. Candidate will teach 2-3 courses per semester in area(s) of specialty. Ability and training to teach in both areas and/or professional experience a plus.

Salary: Nine Month $47,000/Negotiable; opportunity for summer teaching.

Application: Review of applications for a August, 2008 start will begin immediately and remain open until filled. A complete application should include: Letter of application, graduate transcripts(s), three recent letters of recommendation, a vitae and a sample copy/reproduction of written/creative scholarship. Mail application materials to:

Dr. John S. Scott, Chair
Department of Speech Communication & Theatre
Jackson State University
P O Box 17126
Jackson, MS 39217

*Applications may be submitted electronically to: john.s.scott@jsums.edu
Telephone inquiries: 601.979.2426