The History Department offers both the thesis and non-thesis Master of Arts Degrees. The areas of concentration for the degree include: American, African-American, Global, African, and Public History and Oral History.

Mission Statement

The Department of History and Philosophy offers students the opportunity to pursue a course of study that prepares them to enter a range of professional paths and careers. These potential careers include teaching from elementary to high school to junior college to the four year university, research and scholarship enterprises, public and leadership service and a welter of other professional pursuits requiring a demonstrated knowledge, appreciation and application of the human historical experience in answer changing multi-cultural world.

The graduate History program's area of concentration include American, African-American, Asian, African, Latin American, Public, Women's and Disability History. In the areas of African-American, African Women's, Public and Disability History, the department has an especially impressive curriculum as well as an assembled coterie of talented teaching-research faculty.

Program Objectives

1. To use classroom instruction, research based learning and relevant professional experiences and exposures to assist students in acquiring the requisite knowledge, competencies and mastery essential to a general liberal arts education.
2. To prepare students to either continue graduate study beyond the Master of Arts degree and/or engage in history related professional careers.
3. To prepare students to teach history in elementary and secondary schools and at the junior college level.
4. To serve the instructional needs of teachers, principals, and supervisors as required to maintain or improve their current teaching or leadership status.

- To promote the scholarly study and investigation of the human historical experience as well as the dissemination of such research via both presentations at professional conferences and publication the disciplines.

Admission Requirements

- Satisfying all admission requirements of the Division of Graduate Studies.
- Completing a Personal Statement.
- Application packet for the Graduate History Program.
- Submitting a satisfactory score on the Graduate Record Examination, GRE.

Transfer of Credits

Up to nine semester hours of credits in significantly related courses may be accepted toward the M.A. Degree in History. The earned credits must be from a graduate history program at an accredited institution of higher learning.

Degree Requirements

- Required Courses - History 545, Historical Criticism and Historiography; History 546, Historical Research.
- Required number of hours for thesis option: 30; for non-thesis option: 36.
- An M.A. student must complete a thesis within two years after passing the Graduate Comprehensive Examination.
- A written Comprehensive Examination is required for completion of the M.A. degree in history. The written examination is given at the time designed by the Graduate School.
- All M.A. students in history are required to pass a foreign language examination, usually via a written examination. If, however, a student has taken and passed the first year sequence of a foreign language (101, 102) as an undergraduate and averaged a grade of "B" or better, the examination is usually waived. Additionally, specified course(s) in computer science may be used to satisfy the foreign language requirement. If one chooses this option, it must be agreed upon by both the student's advisor and the Department Chair. All candidates must satisfy the language requirement before graduation.
- A student who has demonstrated some academic deficiencies and is provisionally admitted to the graduate program may be asked to take an undergraduate course(s) or to enroll in a structured remedial program. In this way, the Department increases the likelihood of the student successfully completing the program and receiving the Master of Arts degree.
- After completing all class requirements for the degree, M.A. candidates who opted for a thesis option must register for History 590- "Thesis". Thesis degree candidates must initially complete six (6) hours of History 590. If the thesis is not completed after the initial six hours, a student will need to register for one (1) hour of History 590 until all degree requirements have been satisfied. Non-thesis candidates instead of a thesis are required to complete a written research project. Until the project is completed and approved by the student's project committee he/she is required to be registered for one (1) hour of History 590. A non-thesis M.A. candidate must complete the project within one year of completing the required course work.

The Department of Political Science offers a graduate program leading to the Master of Arts in Political Science. Students may take the thesis or non-thesis routes to the M.A. degree.

Mission Statement

The Department of Political Science prepares students for careers in teaching, scholarship, research and public service, as well as for critical citizenship. Designed to train political scientists, the department's graduate program facilitates advanced study and inquiry of the approaches, philosophical underpinnings, methodologies and practical implications of political science.

The graduate program's offerings are divided into general areas of research methods, American and African-American politics, comparative politics emphasizing Africa, international relations and political philosophy. The department is particularly strong in the field of African-American politics.

Program Objectives

The broad objectives of the Master of Arts program are:

- ◆ To prepare students to successfully pursue graduate work at the doctoral level;
- ◆ To develop students' research capacities and skills, which make possible critical analysis of policy and politics;
- ◆ To prepare students for and enhance their marketability in the worlds of work-public, private and non-profit sectors;
- ◆ To assist primary and secondary schools in teaching the processes and values of critical citizenship.

Admission Requirements

Prospective students must satisfy the requirements for admission to the Division of Graduate Studies. The Department of Political Science requires the submission of a statement of purpose.

Requirement for Degree Candidacy

The comprehensive examination and completion of the required political science courses are required for a student to be admitted to candidacy for the M.A. in
