

Question 1

Recent discoveries about the development of chrysalides_____that several cycles are involved. [Choose the correct verb to complete this sentence]

1. reveals
2. revealing
3. reveal
4. reveling

Question 2

Many speeches written overnight _____the haste of the speaker. [Select the correct verb to complete this sentence]

1. indicating
2. are indicating
3. indicates
4. indicate

Question 3

Everybody should do _____ best. [Select the correct pronoun to complete this sentence]

1. their
2. our
3. his/her
4. theirs

Question 4

An Employee is free to express _____ opinion.

1. their
2. his/her
3. our
4. theirs

Question 5

Only once one proves himself can _____ be accepted into this program. [Select the correct pronoun to complete this sentence]

1. you
2. they
3. one
4. We

Question 6

When Robert and Jane come to class ____ should have _____homework ready. [Select the pair of pronouns that complete this sentence]

1. they, your
2. you, their
3. you,his/her
4. he/she, their

Question 7

Sentences should convey meaning intelligibly and without ambiguity or choppiness. Choose the correct sentence.

1. All of the details should be made aware of.
2. Students should be made aware of all the details.

Question 8

Sentences should convey meaning intelligibly and without ambiguity or choppiness. Choose the sentence with correct structure.

1. The cat was put to sleep. Being very sick.
2. Because the cat was very sick, it was put to sleep.

Question 9

Sentences should convey meaning intelligibly and without ambiguity or choppiness. Choose the sentence with correct structure.

1. Because John arrived late to class, he was punished.
2. Arrived very late. John was punished.

Question 10

[Complete the following sentence] _____ suggests that moderate exercise is better than no exercise at all.

1. In the report it
2. The report
3. This report it
4. In this report it

Question 11

Complete the following sentence] The deans intended to meet last month, but _____ didn't happen until today.

1. this
2. that
3. unfortunately it
4. the conference

Question 12

Choose the correct sentence.

1. Explaining the material prior to the test can help distill students' fears.
2. Explaining the material prior to the test can help dispel students' fears.

Question 13

Choose the correct sentence.

1. The little girl loved to look at the geese.
2. The little girl loved to look at the geese.

Question 14

Select the sentence with the correct or preferred punctuation.

1. Many studies indicate auspicious results in function, decreased pain and range of motion.
2. Many studies indicate auspicious results in function, decreased pain, and range of motion.

Question 15

Select the sentence with the correct or preferred punctuation.

1. The scavenger hunt team collected the signatures, the red marbles, and the ticket stubs.
2. The scavenger hunt team collected the signatures, the red marbles and the ticket stubs.

Question 16

Select the sentence with the correct punctuation.

1. Nothing was left behind but the empty house stayed on our minds.
2. Nothing was left behind, but the empty house stayed on our minds.

Question 17

Select the sentence with the correct punctuation.

1. The government's most recent study reported poverty was spreading and soon absolute poverty reigned in the district.
2. The government's most recent study reported poverty was spreading, and soon absolute poverty reigned in the district.

Question 18

Choose the sentence with the correct punctuation.

1. His enthusiam for the class and his willingness to help led him to volunteer.
2. His enthusiam for the class and his willingness to help, led him to volunteer.

Question 19

[Complete the following sentence] _____ that walking in the street?

1. Whose
2. Whom is
3. Who's
4. Whos

Question 20

[Complete the following sentence] I would like to ask you _____ coat that is?

1. who's
2. of who
3. who of
4. whose