

DOCTOR OF PUBLIC HEALTH DEGREE

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Applicants must apply to the Division of Graduate Studies and to the Doctor of Public Health Degree Program in the School of Public Health. Admission to the Doctor of Public Health Degree Program is on a selective basis and is determined by the following criteria:

- Master of Public Health Degree or a master's degree in a related discipline in public health
- Admission to the Division of Graduate Studies at Jackson State University
- Academic promise as evidenced by above average achievements in undergraduate and graduate studies
- Satisfactory performance on the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) taken within the past five years
- Satisfactory performance on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or the International English Language Standard Test (IELST) - International Applicants Only
- Statement of purpose (philosophy of public health)
- Resume
- Three letters/forms of recommendation (one professional and two academic references)
- Entrance interview (contingent upon initial assessment)

Transfer students must meet the same admission standards as all other applicants

Application Deadline: March 1st