Biography:

John W. Jackson (1948-1990), was born and raised in West Point, educated at Kentucky State University. He is a businessman and community leader. His papers primarily document the personal business and social activities of Mr. Jackson. Noted are materials relevant to Mary Holmes College, Clay County Development Program, Tombigbee Council on Human Relations and the Freedom Vote Project.

Scope and Content:

The collection includes correspondence, memoranda, reports, minutes, newsletters, programs, pamphlets, financial records (business and personal), articles, news clippings and subject files ranging from 1948-1990. These papers document some of Mr. Jackson's activities as a businessman, community leader, and grassroots political activist in the Golden Triangle region of Mississippi.

The papers are arranged by activity and are divided into three series.

Series I: Civic and Religious Activities

Series II: Legal/Financial Records

Series III: Newspaper clippings
