RESEARCHER APPLICATION

The Margaret Walker Center is open to the public for the use and inspection of archival and oral history records in the Center’s manuscript and oral history collections. Records accessed through the Center’s website and Rod Paige Reading Room do not circulate. Please note that some records may not be readily accessible and may require 1 to 2 days for retrieval. Registration is required to enter the Rod Paige Reading Room and access records. Registration information collected on this form is for the Margaret Walker Center's use only.

Name:

Mailing Address:

______________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________

Phone: ________________  Email: ________________________________

Employer/Institution: ___________________________________________

Faculty/Staff _____  Graduate Student _____  Undergraduate _____  Other __________

Initial Date of Inquiry: ________________________________

Subsequent Dates: ____________________________________________

Collections to access: _________________________________________

________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________
Description of Research Project: ______________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________

Category:  Academic _____  Government _____  International Organization ________
Non-governmental organization _____  Press _____  Other ____________________________

________________________________________________________________________________

Purpose of the Research:  Academic publication _____  Non-academic publication ________
Exhibition ________  Media ________  Other ________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________

Notice of Warning Concerning Copyright Restrictions
The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted materials.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be “used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research.” If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of “fair use,” that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law. This notice is posted in compliance with Title 37 C. F. R., Chapter II, Part 201.14.

Permission and possible fees may be required from the copyright holder independently of the Margaret Walker Center. It is the user’s obligation to determine and satisfy copyright or other use restrictions using materials found in the Margaret Walker Center collections. Any use of protected works beyond that allowed by fair use requires the written permission of the copyright holder.
owners. Researchers must make their own assessment of rights in light of their intended use. The Margaret Walker Center reserves the right not to provide archival materials on request if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the request would involve violation of copyright laws.

Please be advised that the publication or republication of any materials provided by the Margaret Walker Center is strictly prohibited without express prior consent of the Margaret Walker Center.

Warning: The reproduction of materials in the Margaret Walker Center by researchers using their own equipment, such as digital cameras and cellphones, may also be subject to copyright laws.

Acknowledgment

I have read and agree to abide by the rules regarding the use of archival materials. I am aware that infringement of the Center’s rules may result in my being excluded from using the Center’s archival or oral history collections. I further understand that I may be searched when I leave the premises.

I shall acknowledge the use of Margaret Walker Center collections in any publication, which may result from my research through correct citation of sources. I shall provide the Center with a copy, free of charge, of any publication resulting from my use of the Center’s collections.

I shall obtain the permission of copyright owners where required by law, if I wish to make further reproductions of documents.

_________________________________________  __________________________
Signature                              Date
The Rod Paige Reading Room Rules & Procedures

- The Rod Paige Reading Room is open Monday to Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. All researchers must complete and sign this form. In addition, they must sign the visitors’ log book each day.

- Researchers must complete and sign the Researcher Application Form and must provide acceptable identification (driver’s license or photographic ID.) Researchers are requested to sign the register once daily during each research visit. By signing the visitors’ log book, you indicate an understanding of the regulations and a willingness to abide by them.

- No food or drink is allowed in the Rod Paige Reading Room.

- Pencils are to be used when working with materials. Under no circumstances are pens allowed.

- Laptop computers, PCs, and tape recorders are also permitted provided that they do not disturb other researchers.

- Digital cameras are allowed in the reading room for reference purposes only.

- Researchers may photograph some collections with approval of the Archivist and under supervision of Margaret Walker Center staff. Use of flash equipment is prohibited.

- Briefcases, backpacks, laptop cases, and other bags are not permitted in the Archives reading room and must be stored in lockers provided in Ayer Hall.

- Folders, notebooks, laptops, and research notes brought in to the Archives by patrons are subject to search prior to leaving the Archives reading room.

- Loud talking and actions likely to disturb other researchers are prohibited in the reading room. Extended conferences with fellow researchers should be held outside the reading room.

- Margaret Walker Center materials may only be used in the reading room. The primary and secondary vaults are closed to researchers.

- Archival materials do not circulate.
• Removal of archival materials from the reading room without permission constitutes theft under the law.

• The researcher must accept the responsibility of handling carefully materials made available.

• Manuscripts and books may not be leaned on, written on, folded, traced over or handled in any way that may damage them. All manuscripts must be kept on surface of the table. Some of the materials may require wearing white gloves provided by Margaret Walker Center staff.

• Manuscripts and archival materials are to be maintained in the order in which they are received by the researcher. If any material is discovered to be out of order, please advise staff. Do not rearrange papers.

• The Margaret Walker Center Rod Paige Reading Room will consider requests for limited reproduction of material when such duplication can be done without injury to the material and when duplication does not violate donor agreements or copyrights laws. Entire folders of material, oral histories, photographs and audiovisual materials in any format will not be copied.

• The reproduction request form must be completed and submitted to the Margaret Walker Center Archivist. Permission to reproduce does not constitute permission to publish.

• Upon completion of research, return all materials to the staff member on duty. Margaret Walker Center staff reserves the right to inspect all research materials and personal articles before a researcher leaves the room.

• It is the researcher’s responsibility to comply with copyright laws regarding publication of materials from the Margaret Walker Center, Jackson State University.

• Written permission from the Margaret Walker Center is required before materials from the collections are mounted on the Internet, in any kind of exhibition, and published in any form.