

Position Announcement
Assistant Professor
Jackson State University
School, Community & Rehabilitation Counseling Department
School of Administrative Leadership
College of Education and Human Development

Jackson State University invites applications and accepts nominations for tenure track assistant professor Position the Department of School, Community & Rehabilitation Counseling.

RESPONSIBILITIES: Tenure Track position responsibilities will include teaching core counseling courses and specialty courses in school counseling; research, publication, and other scholarly activities; supervision in practicum and internship; advisement; serving on departmental, college, and university committees; and assisting in curriculum development, accreditation, and program planning.

QUALIFICATIONS: Candidate must have earned doctorate in Counselor Education or related field with a concentration in School Counseling from a CACREP Accredited institution. Demonstrate a strong commitment to teaching and mentoring of counseling students; commitment to maintaining and enhancing mutually beneficial relationship with area schools (elementary and secondary). Demonstrate records of involvement with professional organizations and experience as a school counselor in an elementary and/or secondary school setting; certification in school counseling; and eligible for licensure.

Salary: $ 40,000.00 – $ 45,000.00

Beginning Date: August 1, 2007

Complete application must include a letter of application, application form, vitae, three letters of recommendation, and official transcript mailed directly to Dr. Farish-Jackson. Applications should be sent to:

Dr. Jean Farish-Jackson, Chair
Department of School, Community & Rehabilitation Counseling
JSU Box 17122
Jackson State University
Jackson, MS. 39217-0122