Department of ART & THEATRE at JSU
presents

Ma Rainey's Black Bottom

You are invited to the Department of Art & Theatre at JSU to see August Wilson's production of Ma Rainey's Black Bottom. To purchase tickets, visit our box office in the lobby of the Rose E. McCoy Auditorium on the JSU campus, or buy your tickets online at www.jsums.edu/marketplace, then click on Art & Theatre. Come join us for a memorable performance!

Synopsis

It's 1927 in a rundown studio in Chicago where Ma Rainey is recording new sides of old favorites. More goes down in the session than music in this riveting portrayal of rage, racism, the self-hate and exploitation.

"-Searing ... funny, salty, carnal and lyrical.... Wilson has lighted a dramatic fuse that snakes and hisses through several anguished eras of American life. When the fuse reaches its explosive final destination, the audience is impaled by the impact." - The New York Times

If you are bringing students please see department website: www.jsums.edu/art, click on 'theatre' then 'box office' for study guide. This play includes mature language and it is recommended that children of a certain age be accompanied by an adult.
