

Jackson State University Announces Commencement Speaker

Debra Stewart, president of the Council of Graduate Schools in Washington, D.C., will be the speaker for Jackson State University's 2007 Summer Commencement Exercises scheduled for 9 a.m. Saturday, Aug. 4, at the Lee E. Williams Athletics and Assembly Center.

As the spokesperson for the graduate dean community, Stewart leads the organization dedicated to the improvement and advancement of graduate education and research.

Its 480-plus member institutions annually award more than 90 percent of all U.S. doctorates and approximately 75 percent of all U.S. master's degrees.
