

Announcing the 26th Annual Fannie Lou Hamer Memorial Symposium Lecture Series

THE OBAMA PRESIDENCY:

Reflections on the First 262 days

Sponsored by The Fannie Lou Hamer National Institute on Citizenship and Democracy and the Department of Political Science at Jackson State University

We encourage you to join us

October 8-9, 2009

Confirmed Lecture Series Presenters include:

Mr. Charlie Cobb, Jr., Author and Civil Rights Activist

Attorney Angela Kupenda, Mississippi College School of Law

Dr. Emilye Crosby, SUNY Geneseo

Dr. Rickey Hill, MS Valley State University

Dr. Robert Luckett, Jr., University of Georgia

Dr. Mary D. Coleman, Jackson State University

Mr. Whit Grace, Jackson Public Schools

Dr. Pete Daniel, Museum of American History

The symposium will feature a series of panels and general sessions dealing with “The Obama Presidency: Reflections on the First 262 days.”

More information is available on our website at: www.jsums.edu/hamer.institute or by contacting The Hamer Institute at (601) 979-1562.