

Michael Hoover
Department of Political Science
Seminole Community College, Florida

Case Study: Federalism & Civil Rights

- I. Kennedy Administration
 - a. Intervene only when local officials have totally lost control
 - b. Disregard legal precedents for federal government
 - c. Protection of civil rights workers
 - d. Work with segregationists rather than with civil rights advocates

- II. Incidents & Situations
 - a. Freedom rides (1961)
 - b. Ole Miss Riot (1962)
 - c. Greenwood Injunction (1963)

- III. Johnson Administration
 - a. Continuity with Kennedy approach
 - b. Reliance upon voluntary compliance with 1965 Voting Rights Act
 - c. Send federal registrars only as a last resort

- IV. Activities & Materials
 - a. Student research
 - b. Video clips
 - c. Excerpted readings
 - d. Classroom discussions
 - e. Photos