

Michael J. Lenaghan
Miami-Dade College
Miami, Florida
Interdisciplinary Courses

ISS 1120 Social Environment (Interdisciplinary Social Sciences) 3 credits

1. Required mini-research assignments: ‘one aspect of the Civil Rights Movement in Miami-Dade Co. 1954-2005 and its impact on me.’
2. Additional news media sources for weekly abstracts: African-American, Haitian-American, Hispanic radio, television, and print media.
3. DVD/VHS case study on Freedom Summer and Memphis Sanitation Workers Strike: a) presentation, b) discussion, c) reflective essay
4. Service Learning Reflection Journal question: How do the student’s community service relate to Civil Rights?

IDH 2970 Sophomore Thesis and Leadership Development Honor’s College (3 credits)

1. Include one video/audiotape of Civil Rights Leader’s speech that present vision, values, strategies, and tactics of non-violent rhetoric, purpose, processes, and outcomes.
2. Offer service learning options that involve students in Civil Rights, community service: Jobs for Justice, Special Education Rights, Juvenile Justice.
3. Sponsor an Honors Colloquium
  - a. Women As Change Agents in Civil Rights in Miami
    - Althea Williams-----African-American-----Voters Rights
    - Audrey Finkelstine---Jewish-----Economic Rights
    - Nora Roberts-----Anglo-----School Desegregation
  - b. Roots and Wings: Past, Present and Future of Civil Rights
Video Conference MOC/JSU/Rhodes Conversation