

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

Staff Sergeant Ian C. Tracy

Staff Sergeant Ian C. Tracy is the Noncommissioned Officer in Charge, Administration, Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC), Detachment 006, located at Jackson State University in Jackson, Mississippi. As the sole enlisted cadre member, he conveys the enlisted perspective to 3 officer cadre members and 40 cadets. He manages and oversees all detachment administrative and personnel procedures, maintains cadet records, and oversees cadet physicals, enlistments, and commissioning's while ensuring cadet compliance to Air Force standards, enabling the Air Force ROTC mission: To develop leaders of character for tomorrow's Air and Space Forces.

Sergeant Tracy enlisted in the Air Force in April of 2014 and his background includes various Commander Support Staff roles at the squadron and installation levels. He played a vital role in the standing up of the 2d Fighter Training Squadron, an adversary air unit, at Tyndall Air Force Base, Florida. He has also served in an Air Force Post Office while on an overseas short tour.

Prior to assuming his current position, Sergeant Tracy served as Noncommissioned Officer in Charge, Commander Support Staff, for the 717th Air Base Squadron, Ankara Support Facility, in Ankara, Turkey; a geographically separated unit from Incirlik Air Base, Turkey. The facility hosted a DoDEA K-12 school, Base Exchange, Commissary, and provided many support functions to the U.S. government affiliated community members assigned to Turkey's Capital, including the Office of Defense Cooperation-Turkey and U.S. Embassy.

Before joining the Air Force, Sergeant Tracy worked for the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) as a 1040X, amended tax return processor, at the Kansas City, Missouri IRS complex.
