

NEWS

Dr. Daniel Watkins, dean of the JSU College of Education and Human Development.

Daniel Watkins, dean of the Jackson State University College of Education and Human Development has been chosen to participate in the Rutgers Graduate School of Education HBCU College of Education Dean's Think Tank, July 11-12 at Rutgers University in New Brunswick, New Jersey. He will participate in a two-day experience designed to create spaces for critical and on-going dialogue to illuminate important issues in the P-20 spectrum. In an effort to uphold the mission of the Samuel DeWitt Proctor Chair in Education, which is Promoting Potential Through Partnership, Think Tank members will engage in discussions about social justice issues and will be led by facilitators from Temple University, University of North Carolina-Charlotte, and Ohio State University.

Rutgers Think Tank Link

http://gse.rutgers.edu/content/first-annual-think-tank-convenes-minority-education-experts-rutgers?utm_source=Rutgers+Graduate+School+of+Education+List&utm_campaign=0991910dab-Highlights2012&utm_medium=email

United States Department of Education
Mini Southeast Tour
Jackson, MS

March 22, 2013

The College of Education and Human Development will host a roundtable panel discussion with USDOE personnel on March 21, 2013, from 10:00 A.M. until noon, at the Mississippi e-Center in the Georgia room. The panel will consist of three members from the U.S. Department of Education, deans, superintendents, principals, teachers, directors and student teachers. The discussion is designed to review and discuss the national document, The RESPECT Project: Envisioning a Teaching Profession for the 21st Century, and notes from this roundtable will be given to the U.S. Secretary of Education, Arne Duncan.

www.ed.gov