

JACKSON STATE UNIVERSITY'S EXECUTIVE PHD PROGRAM

Lead with Purpose! Graduate with Distinction!

Ready to Lead at the Highest Level?

The Executive Ph.D. Program (EPhD) in Urban Higher Education at Jackson State University prepares accomplished professionals to assume senior leadership roles in colleges, universities, and organizations that influence postsecondary education.

This prestigious doctoral program is designed specifically for working executives who are committed to advancing equity, innovation, and excellence in higher education.

Why Choose JSU's Executive Ph.D.?

- ✓ Designed for Working Professionals
- ✓ Cohort-Based Model for Collaborative Leadership
- ✓ Research-Driven, Practice-Focused Curriculum
- ✓ Executive-Level Networking Opportunities
- ✓ Faculty Mentorship from Distinguished Scholars
- ✓ HBCU Legacy of Excellence and Impact

For over two decades, the Executive Ph.D. Program has developed leaders who serve as presidents, vice presidents, deans, directors, policymakers, and higher education change agents across the nation.

Program's Focus Areas

- Urban Higher Education Leadership
 - Policy & Governance
 - Organizational Theory & Change
 - Finance & Resource Management
 - Student Success & Institutional Effectiveness
 - Research & Dissertation Support
-

Ideal Candidates

This program is designed for experienced professionals who:

- Hold a master's degree
 - Serve in leadership roles in higher education or related sectors
 - Aspire to executive-level leadership
 - Desire to impact urban and diverse educational environments
-

Program Format (Only One Weekend a Month)

- Executive-style delivery structured to accommodate full-time professionals
 - Intensive, high-impact learning experiences which supports cohort environment
-

APPLY TODAY AT JACKSON STATE UNIVERSITY

College of Education and Human Development – Executive Ph.D. in Urban Higher Education

www.jsums.edu/www.jsums.edu/ephd - eugenia.m.scott@jsums.edu – 601-979-1811