

---

JSU online DL 503: Teaching with Blackboard Learn

Course Description

This workshop helps instructors develop the technical and pedagogical skills necessary to teach effectively and successfully in Blackboard. Participants will focus on the instructor role and will learn about course preparation, communication, managing the Grade Book, and more.

Before Taking this Course

- Course participants should have a working knowledge of basic computer operation and function and experience with Internet navigation.
- Successfully complete Introduction to Blackboard.

Learning Outcomes

- Develop organizational strategies and outline course content for online deliver.
- Discuss best practices for teaching online.
- Implement interactive instructional strategies.
- Customize the syllabus for the online environment.
- Design and manage a learning community that is collaborative, engaging, and increases social interaction.
- Create discussion forums, chat, and virtual classroom rooms.
- Discuss effective communication and feedback.
- Discuss effective and efficient online assessment strategies.

Location: Online via Blackboard or Innovate Center, H. T. Sampson Library, 1st Floor Office
Office: (601) 979-0779