

DL 704: Using Audio and Video in Blackboard Learn

Course Description

Participants will learn how to use various instructional technology tools (i.e., Camtasia, CamStudio, Jing, Knovio and Audacity) to create interactive instructional materials (both audio and video) for the online learning environment.

Before Taking this Course

- Course participants must be familiar with working in a web browser

Learning Outcomes

- Create, edit, and publish audio content.
- Create, edit, and publish video content.
- Create screencapture content for demonstrations and tutorials.
- Incorporate audio and video content into the distance learning course.

Location: Innovate Center, H. T. Sampson Library, 1st Floor

Office: (601) 979-0779