Personal Awards/Grants/Fellowships

National Science Foundation Grant, $170,000. Awarded May 2015. Title: “The Impact of Racially Traumatic Stressful Events on African Americans’ Psychological, Physiological and Political Responses.”

Academic Exchange Fellowship, August 2 – August 10, 2015—This is an invitation only fellowship. I was nominated by Professor Judith Kelley, the Stephan Haggard, Krause Distinguished Professor at Duke University. This purpose of the program is to invite Political Scientists to Israel to attend meetings with prominent Israeli and Palestinian policymakers, scholars and opinion leaders, covering a wide range of topics and political perspectives on domestic, foreign policy and security issues. I attended the law section of the program.

Center for Undergraduate Research, Awarded 2014-2015—Received a grant in the amount of $7,000 to conduct research in collaborations with a team of undergraduates on physiological responses to racially traumatic events. Experimental research will be conducted with students who will conduct the experiments and analyze the data. Students presented their findings at the Mississippi Political Science Association and the National Conference of Black Political Scientists.

2014 Jackson State University Faculty Excellence Award

2014 Liberal Art's Researcher of the Year

Center for Undergraduate Research, Awarded 2013-2014—Received a grant in the amount of $7,000 to conduct research with undergraduate students in the area of experimental research. Students will conduct experiments and analyze data to examining the impact of hair texture on African-American political attitudes. Students will present their findings at three national, regional and local conferences.

Jackson State University Creative Arts Award, 2014-2015. “The Study of Hairtexture and Candidate Evaluation.” This award in the amount of $5,000 was presented by the President of Jackson State University to provide seed money for innovative research.

Palestinian American Research Center Fellow, 2013

- The fellowship provided full funding to investigate Palestinian in-group subconscious attitudes. This project compares African-American attitudes in the United States to Palestinian attitudes (Travel Dates: May 15-May 27, 2013).

Center for Undergraduate Research, Awarded 2012-2013—Received a grant in the amount of $7,000 to conduct research with undergraduate students in the area of survey research. Students conducted a random digit dialing survey of respondents from various counties in Mississippi using “landline only telephone numbers.” The results revealed that a bias existed due to the failure of employing cell phones. Students used this project to present at three conferences, including a national conference.

UC-HBCU Initiative, Awarded 2012-2013— Awarded $28,090 grant from the University of California-Historically Black Colleges and Universities Initiative (UC-HBCU) for 2012-13, Dr. Belinda Robnett and Katherine Tate, co-PIs. The
