He was co-captain of the 1968 and 1969 teams with Charles Marshall (football) and Larry McKinney (basketball). After leaving West Amory High School, he became an avid amateur tennis player in his adult life, winning NRTP tournaments throughout Ohio, Mississippi, and the Southeast US. Ranked among the Mississippi's top ten adult players at NTRP 3.5 and 4.0 levels in Men Doubles and Singles for several years, he and his partner eventually earned the State of Mississippi's #1 ranked team in NRTP 4.0 Men's Doubles for the 2003 tennis season. He and his female partner were the Mississippi Tennis's #2 ranked NRTP 7.5 Mixed Doubles team in 2002. He is a two-time Mississippi Senior Olympics (Tennis) Silver Medalist in 4.0 men doubles and 8.0 mixed doubles.
