

Stephanie Bundle, LSW

Stephanie Bundle is a licensed social worker. She is enrolled in the Ph.D. in Social Work Program at Jackson State University. Ms. Bundle previously served as an alcohol and drug counselor at the Friendship Connection Alcohol and Drug Treatment Center in Jackson, MS. She earned her B.A. in Social Work at the University of Michigan – Flint and M.Ed. at Tennessee State University. Her research interest is the long-term effects of childhood sexual trauma, in particular as it relates to the mental, emotional, and physical health problems experienced by the adult female population. Ms. Bundle is affiliated with a number of organizations and currently serves as a contract trainer/facilitator for the College of Lifelong Learning at Jackson State University.