Department of ART & THEATRE at JSU
presents

Mountaintop

We are excited in the Department of Art & Theatre at JSU to invite theatre audiences to the first play of our 57th season. Come see the critically-acclaimed production - Mountaintop, a play that portrays an engaging, fictional account of the last hours of Martin Luther King's life. Told from a surprising, poignant point of view audiences will enjoy. Written by celebrated playwright, Katori Hall and directed by Yolanda Williams, the play is a visionary masterpiece.

To purchase tickets, visit our box office in the lobby of the Rose E. McCoy Auditorium on the JSU campus, located on Prentiss/Lynch Street, or buy your tickets online at www.jsums.edu/marketplace, then click on Art & Theatre. Come join us for a memorable performance!

*This play occasionally includes heavy language and it is recommended that children of a certain age be accompanied by an adult.
