

BACHELOR OF ARTS

POLITICAL SCIENCE- Legal Studies

Jackson State University's Department of Political Science has areas of strength in American politics, Legal Studies, Paralegal Studies, and African Politics. The Department helps students combine theoretical creativity with empirical research. Students are prepared for careers in government, politics, the legal profession, and a plethora of other occupations. Many students take advantage of the various internship and fellowship opportunities available to Political Science students.

The Legal Studies curriculum introduces students to basic legal principles in the areas of torts, civil and criminal procedures, and constitutional law. Students will graduate with base level knowledge that will be used in an accredited law school program or a career in the legal field.

COURSE TYPE DESCRIPTIONS

|-----------------------------|------------|--|
| General Education Core | GEC | General Education Core (GEC) courses are courses that every student must take in order to obtain a degree from Jackson State University. GEC courses are essential to every undergraduate degree at Jackson State University. Collectively, there are 30 credit hours of GEC course requirements. |
| General Education Pathway | PATH | General Education Pathway (PATH) courses are courses that are connected through interdisciplinary themes and are selected at the student's discretion to fulfill the general education curriculum. Through experiential learning and reflective writing, students will have the opportunity to integrate knowledge across courses, develop their skills and an enhanced sense of civic responsibility. Students select nine (9) hours from the pathway of choice. Each pathway concludes with a related one (1) credit hour a University Required (UR) course. |
| University Required | UR | University Required (UR) courses are courses that are specific to Jackson State University and are designed to integrate students within the Jackson State University community by promoting student success resources, strategies and high impact practices. |
| Degree Program Requirement | DPR | Degree Program Required (DPR) courses are courses that are required for completion of a degree program within the specified major. |
| Electives | DPE or GEL | Electives are courses selected at a student's discretion and provide opportunities for students to pursue their academic interests. There are two types of electives. Degree Program Elective (DPE) courses are elective courses that are partially restricted such that students select courses from a specified group of identified courses (e.g., departmental elective courses) to fulfill a particular requirement. General Elective (GEL) courses are courses that may be selected from any program for which the student has fulfilled the proper prerequisites. |
| Professional Concentrations | PC | Professional Concentration (PC) courses complement Degree Program Required courses and allow students to have a concentrated area of study within the major. |
